

AWF NEWS FROM AFRICA

Award-Winning Short Features AWF

Gorillas...98.6% Human won the Audience Award for Best Documentary Short at the 2009 Annual Maui Film Festival. Produced by the multimedia organization explore and directed by Charles Annenberg Weingarten,

Gorillas...98.6% Human covers a trip to Rwanda where the filmmakers visited four groups of wild mountain gorillas. Their guide, AWF Vice President Craig Sholley, has been intimately involved in the preservation of African wildlife for more than 30 years. The film documents the team's thrilling interaction with these peaceful animals.

▶ View the documentary short at www.explore.org/explore/africa